

The Second Immanuel Kant International Summer School

Kant's Doctrines of Right, Law, and Freedom

Target audience: advanced bachelor students, master students, PhD students, recent postdocs (with PhD received not before 2016).

Working languages: English, Russian

Dates: 29 July – 5 August 2018

Deadline for submission: 10 May, 2018

Results of acceptance: 20 May, 2018

Location: Svetlogorsk, Kaliningrad region, Baltic sea.

E-mail: academia@kantiana.ru

Requirements for applications:

English, at least upper intermediate;

Questionnaire (see below);

Motivation Letter (in English, 350-400 words)

Abstract on the topic of your own research project related to the philosophy of Kant (in English, 1200-1400 words including references).

Preliminary Program

Lecture 1. Freedom and moral obligation in Kant (and his predecessors)

Seminar 1. Selected passages from the Critique of Pure Reason, the Groundwork of the Metaphysics of Morals, and the Critique of Practical Reason

Lecture 2. Kant's concept of law between natural law and historicism

Seminar 2. Selected passages from the "Introduction to the Metaphysics of Morals" in the Metaphysics of Morals

Lecture 3. The "Ulpian formulas" and the "right of (and to) freedom" in the Metaphysics of Morals

Seminar 3. Selected passages from the "Introduction to the Doctrine of Right" and the "Division of the Doctrine of right" in the Metaphysics of Morals

Lecture 4. External Mine and Yours

Seminar 4. Selected passages from "Private Right" in the Metaphysics of Morals

Lecture 5. The public state and the concept of resistance

Seminar 5. Selected passages from "Public Right" in the Metaphysics of Morals and the essay Towards Perpetual Peace.

Application Form for Participants of the IInd International Kant Summer School
“Kant’s Doctrine of Right, Law and Freedom”

*Academia Kantiana, IKBFU
29.07 — 06.08.2018, Svetlogorsk*

Surname, given name, year of birth
University / affiliation (confirmation document strictly required)
Education degree (bachelor / M.A. / PhD student, specialisation and year of degree)
Doctoral degree (if graduated), promotion date
Field and topic of research
Scientific Advisor
English language skills certificate (please, indicate a type of certificate and attach it to application)
Contact information (phone, email, postal address)	